ESCAPE TO TRANQUILITY

Indulge in a peaceful getaway at 99 Surf Lodge in Popoyo, where the scenic landscapes and tranquil energy offer a perfect retreat from the hustle and bustle of daily life. With six private suites and one studio apartment, the boutique hotel sits right by the shoreside, providing breathtaking ocean views and easy beach access. Relax in the infinity pool while enjoying the orange sunset or take part in action-packed water activities and excursions, all while enjoying the gourmet menu at Taberna 99. The soothing sound of the waves crashing along the shore will lull you to sleep, making your stay a memorable one.

New Appointment

Fiona Mongey joins Marsh & Parsons as the new Client Management Director, responsible for leading the company's client relationship strategy and ensuring the highest level of customer service. With over 18 years of experience in the Estate Agency sector, Fiona brings a wealth of expertise to the role. Her key responsibilities include developing and implementing new initiatives to support Marsh & Parsons' prime and portfolio landlords, as well as building new client relationships in these areas. Previously the Director of the letting and property management division at Bective, Fiona's appointment is set to drive exceptional customer service at Marsh & Parsons.

An iconic new addition

Four Seasons Private Residences Los Angeles, the first standalone residential project by Four Seasons in North America, has been completed by Genton Development Company. The 12-storey tower contains 58 bespoke luxury residences, including a two-level top-floor Case Study-inspired architectural penthouse. The residences are divided into three wings: The Tower, The Wetherly, and The Almont. The Tower has 37 condominium residences, while The Wetherly Wing has 11 condominium residences spread across four floors, with many of the top-floor residences featuring private rooftop decks. The Almont Wing has 11 condominium and townhouse residences spread across two floors and a basement level, with many of the top-floor residences having their own private rooftop decks. The residences offer Four Seasons' service-rich lifestyle and access to a range of resort-inspired amenities, all designed and managed by Four Seasons.
